From the Principal.....

Dear parents and caregivers,

Our thoughts are with Esmae Robinson's family, after her passing early last week. Mrs Robinson was a valued scripture teacher at our school for many years. She lived to a wonderful age of 101 and she had also received an OAM (Order of Australia medal) in recognition of her wonderful work in the community.

We will sadly say good bye to Miss Austin on March 15th. She has been a wonderful asset to our school and always kept a strong focus on high expectations and learning in her classrooms. Mrs Tina Fletcher will teach 2A from the 18th March, for the rest of the year.

Moorambilla came to visit last Thursday and a number of our students chose to audition. Michelle Leonard, the Artistic Director and a former Coonamble girl, was so impressed with their skills, attitude and the calm way they presented themselves. She has been coming to our school for 14 years and felt it necessary to come and tell me how beautiful the voices were, the potential she saw in some particular Year 6 students and the kindness she witnessed amongst everyone. Well done CPS!

Thankyou Mrs Parsons for supporting our regional swimmers in Armidale on Monday. All reports say it was a great day and again our students proved themselves to be respectful, safe and talented.

Don't forget to book your Learning Meeting for PLP's meeting.

Enjoy your week,
Anthea Robinson
Relieving Principal
